EyeBall Kicks

August 2010

This month we welcome Australian artist Nanami Cowdroy to the gallery. We first came across Nanami's work when we framed up a print that was given to friends of ours as a wedding gift, we loved it so that we tracked her down in Sydney and thankfully, she was happy to let EyeBall Kicks showcase her prints and introduce her to New Zealand!

Influenced by her Japanese and European heritage, her work is a mixture of mediums, elaborate and exotic, with pieces so detailed you'll find new appreciation every day. We have three framed prints available 'Cable Cranes' (left), 'Geisha Yume' and 'Inksects'.

Rock Posters are go! Mike Martin has sent us a bunch of his silkscreened posters from the US plus offset lithos from our friends across the ditch, Ken Taylor, Rhys Cooper, Daymon Greulich and Joe Whyte. Bands include The Kings of Leon, The Shins, Bob Dylan, PJ Harvey, The Melvins, Henry Rollins, Snoop Dogg, QOTSA, The Mars Volta and many more. $45 unframed.
