

NEW STUFF

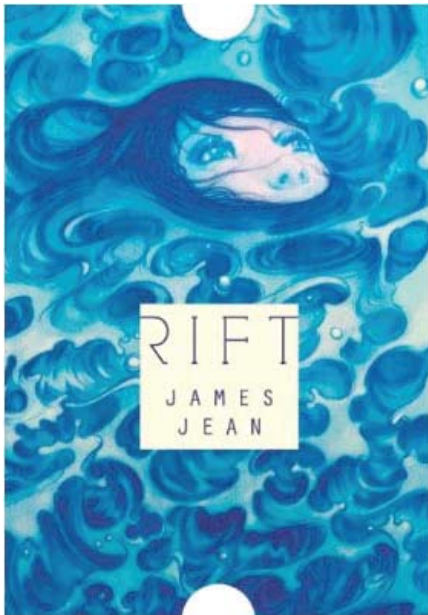

eMailer #43

EyeBall Kicks

September 2010

We're celebrating Spring with a new print 'Butterfly Girl' by Wellington-based artist Miae Kang. Printed onto an archival, german-etching art paper, this high quality print is one of two released by EyeBall Kicks. Check out the equally brilliant 'Flying Fish Girl' print instore and on our website. Prints available framed or unframed.

US artist, James Jean keeps us in awe of his amazing talents with his new release 'Rift'. Housed in a slipcase cover, Rift features 15 gold foil stamped panels showcasing a series of images that fold to reveal different landscapes. It's very cool!

A huge hit at this years Comicon, this fiesty Italian/Canadian, Camilla d'Errico found her inspiration through her love of the Japanese culture including manga comics and anime. Signed prints by Camilla are now available, exclusive to EyeBall Kicks.

We love artwork in all it's forms, but we have a soft spot for postcard sets which feature a mixture of an artists work as mini prints. Micro-portfolios, as they are often known as, are a great way to own more than one image by an artist, and they also make for a unique and affordable gift. From $25.

Traverse Mark Ryden's vast wintry landscapes into the frigid domain of the majestic Snow Yak. Images from Ryden's acclaimed Japanese 'Snow Yak Show' are reproduced in large 11" x 14" format, and include many detail images and drawings. Hardcover book $95.

The best quality stickers and iron-on patches in the land, with a whole bunch of new designs arriving monthly including this months releases by Tara McPherson, Vince Ray, Big Toe, Almera, Derek Yaniger and Doug Horne.

177 cuba street
wellington nz

EyeBall Kicks

eyeballkicks.com
ph 021 387 736